Subj.: Manner of acting on behalf of the company as concerns lease and transfer of storage capacities and transfer of gas

Dear All,

We hereby announce that on behalf of our company, the legal proceedings towards our company and third parties regarding requests for lease and transfer of storage capacities and transfer of gas under the Storage Code of Gas Storage CZ, s.r.o., as well as consents to such requests, will be made via the Nomination System of the Storage Operator and that all persons who have or will have access to the Nomination System of the Storage Operator are authorized to such actions.

Applications for a new access to the Nomination System of the Storage Operator will be sent or agreed from the email address unless the parties will not demonstrably agree otherwise. Such communications should be considered binding legal conduct of our company. This applies to requests and consents made in relation to all contracts for gas storage which our company has entered into with your company to the date of this notice as well as to contracts which will be made with your company in the future.

Best Regards,
